Overview

At Kingsway Christian College, Music is an important part of College life with instrumental programs and many ensembles.

Role

The Peripatetic Instrumental Music Tutor conducts private instrumental music tuition lessons for students in the College Music programme.

Christian Values

The position requires you to be committed to the Christian vision of the College by:

- Celebrating and enjoying being a Christian and being part of a Christian community;
- Modelling Christian behaviour, practices and beliefs;
- Building cooperative and supportive relationships with staff, students and parents;
- Striving for excellence in performance and participation;
- Acting in the best interests of the College, the Association and its ethos.

Specific Duties

Under the direction of the Head of Music, the duties of a Peripatetic Instrumental Music Tutor include the following:

Educational

- Plan and deliver weekly instrumental lessons appropriate to each student's age and ability.
- Organise the lesson schedule and communicate this with parents and students through the school teaching and learning platform.
- Establish with each student, a Practice Diary in which guidance is given weekly and communication with parents is maintained.
- Support performance opportunities as they present themselves, such as preparing students for school performances.

Administrative

- Maintain attendance records as required.
- Where any student from Years 1-5 fails to attend a lesson, visit the class to establish the reason, and escort the child to the lesson if they have forgotten.
- Where a student attendance record appears unsatisfactory, inform the Head of Music to determine appropriate action.
- Notify the Head of Music at the earliest possible time when you will be absent from lessons because of sickness or other unexpected circumstances.
- Provide semester reports as requested by the Head of Music by the given deadline.

Professional

- Conduct yourself in a professional manner always acting in the best interests of the Student and the College.
- Participate in peripatetic music meetings as organised by the Head of Music, for which remuneration will be paid.
- Support College events as required where the Music Department is actively involved.

Additional information

- Tutors are required to organise their lesson schedule and communicate this with parents and students through the school teaching and learning platform.
- The Yr 5 Band program uses a Band Method book to guide the lessons in the early stages and all the students meet weekly for an ensemble rehearsal as well as their group lesson on their instrument.
- There is potential for the successful applicant to also be involved in one of our many ensembles depending on your time availability, as a way of building more time into your KCC schedule. Remuneration will be paid for directing and administering ensembles.
